- 6. Click "Create Account".

How to document your attendance & credit

- 1. Physicians select AMA PRA Category 1 credit; non-Physicians choose either CME-Non-Physician (Attendance) or other appropriate credits offered
- 2. Enter the number of hours you attended
- 3. Check the attestation box
- 4. Click "Submit" (To view, print, or save a certificate, click the "Download Certificate" link under the "MYCE" Evaluation & Certificate)

After May 16, 2024 the evaluation period will close, and you will no longer be able to provide feedback or claim credit — all education credits must be claimed by this date and the completion of your evaluation.

If you experience any issues logging into CloudCME or completing your attestation for credit, please email cme@cchmc.org.

FON & NPC-QIC Spring Virtual Learning Session 4/16/2024

Education Credit:

To receive education credit and/or a certificate of attendance, please:

- Track credit hours
- Complete an evaluation
- *Please complete an evaluation to help improve this program even if you do not need credit.

Track Credit Hours:

Use your agenda to track total hours attended. This information will be asked on the evaluation/attestation. If you attend part of a session, please note the following:

- CNE: Partial credit is NOT available. You must stay the entire day to be eligible for any credit.
- CME: Partial credit is available. Please use the following to convert attendance hours to credit hours:
 - 15-19 min = .25 credit hours 20-34 min = .50 credit hours 35-49 min = .75 credit hours 50-64 min = 1.00 credit hours 65-79 min = 1.25 credit hours

Evaluation/Attestation Completion:

After the activity you will receive an email containing the evaluation and attestation link, please:

- Complete evaluation and attestation by 5/16/2024. Credit/certificates will not be available after this date.
- Only claim hours attended.
- Exit your CloudCME account only after you confirm an electronic certificate was generated.
